

RESPOND, INC.

Annual Report 2010

2010

Dear Stakeholder,

With each challenging year RESPOND continues to work to end abuse in our workplaces, in our families and in our communities.

Thank you to all who have assisted RESPOND in its journey to end domestic violence.

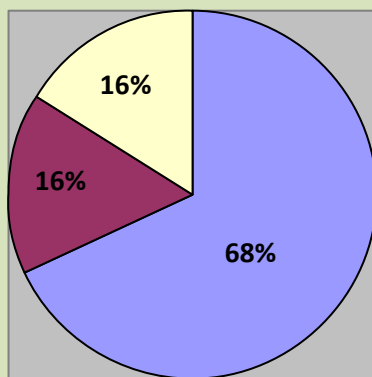

Sincerely,

Jessica Brayden
Executive Director

RESPOND FY10 Stats:

- Hotline Calls: 4,478 individuals were provided information, support and Referrals
- Emergency Shelter: RESPOND's shelter housed 45 adults and 39 children
- Support: 738 individuals received advocacy and counseling
- Teen Dating: 815 high school students were educated in Teen Dating Violence Prevention
- Support Groups: 51 Individuals attended 110 groups
- Legal Services: 632 individuals were assisted with court including restraining orders, accompaniments, and connection to legal representation
- High Risk Teams: 22 cases by 2 high risk teams were assessed for dangerousness, monitored, and received on-going safety planning to prevent homicide.
- Education & Training: serving 2,035 individuals in the community

EXPENSE BREAKDOWN

Program Expenses – 68%
Management & General – 16%
Fundraising – 16%

REVENUE BREAKDOWN

Program Contract Revenue 54%
Fundraising 46%

Respond, Inc. partners with individuals, families and communities to end the serious public health issue of domestic violence. Respond strives to achieve its mission through prevention, intervention, advocacy and direct services that promote safe, healthy relationships.